Week 3

Hands on: Project Structure

Dive straight into lab!

Created to help you...

- Set up your upcoming group project
- Set up and add to just about any project or assignment in WDD
- Explore the many patterns of file structures that developers use in their projects, and why they use them
- Develop your own understanding of file structures that make sense to you

Lab 3: Project Structure

Clarification

"Our paths are no longer dependent on any folder other than the root folder of our project! In other words, if we move our project folder into another folder (or onto another web domain), nothing changes--our website will not break. It's safer!"

This is still talking about relative path :o
